Item	Discussion	Action
Welcome and Apologies	Apologies received from Joe Culleton and Lee Jerome. A great first turn out with 16 members and a big welcome to all. We hope to encourage even more in the future.
What's it All About?	The group discussed and agreed on the following ideas about what we all wanted to get from the group. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sharing Tips and Basic Skills • Documenting our neighbourhoods • Having themed photographic sessions • Supporting local groups and businesses with our photography's, either through sharing pictures we have taken or by taking pictures at events or of facilities for advertising • 'Flash Mob'/'Shoot Outs'- prearranged meet ups with cameras e.g night sessions, early mornings, following the monthly theme etc • Show and Tell session- sharing photographs and discussing technique, settings etc. • Community photography
Future Plans /Projects	Tottenham Community Press is holding a launch of their crowdfunding campaign at the Antwerp Arms and asked the TPC if we would like to provide an exhibition of photos of Tottenham for one of the walls in the Pub. 'Shoot Out"- Following this months theme of 'Fire and Fireworks' proposal to meet up at in Lordship Rec on Friday 3rd Nov to try and picture the Firework display at Ally Pally. A change to share hints and tips. Social Media- The group has a Facebook page and Twitter account Suggested having an Instagram account	(Date was to be 9th November but has been moved on a bit to 30th) Scott to find out about dimensions etc. Lordship Rec, Friday 3rd November 7.30pm onwards Glynis to look into Instagram group account

	Talks- Inviting Semi and Professional Photographers to come and give talks on topics chosen by the group. Glynis told the group that she and Julian had met with David Cotteridge, a local Wildlife photographer for some advice on setting up the group and he had offered to give a talk. Glynis also told the group about a volunteer at the Hub who had offered to give a talk on the basics of photography. Starting A Blog- the idea that a blog might be a better way to share photos with each other and add some level of copywrite.	Dates and times to be confirmed after discussion with the group. Email to be sent to David C asking for details of the talks that he can give. Byron to consider setting up a blog Scott to send round basic wording of copywrite cover.
